

The Coalition of Law Enforcement and Retail Announces New Board Member

Coral Springs, FL (12/07/2017) - The Coalition of Law Enforcement and Retail (CLEAR) announced the selection of its newest Board Member, Gregg "Ox" Oxfeld. Ox also serves as the Senior National Account Manager with Stanley Convergent Security Solutions and has been with the company for more than 12 years. Ox will support Vendor Relations & Fundraising efforts in this new role. "I have been involved with CLEAR and its members since its conception in 2008. Their primary objectives are aligned with not only my own business practices, but my personal beliefs as well." said Ox.

Ox went on to say, "As a security professional, I have always worked toward partnerships, not only within my own team, but with clients and law enforcement. I am looking forward to expanding my role with the Coalition as well as growing the vendor community that supports this worthwhile organization." "My hope is to engage both the organizations involved and the vendor community to ensure we deliver more security related offerings that further support the mission of our members." Ox joins the Board of Directors after many years of supporting the organization's growth and success, both personally and professionally.

"We are very excited to have Ox join the CLEAR Board of Directors. Both he and Stanley Convergent Security Solutions have been champions of CLEAR for many years, supporting our efforts since the very beginning. We welcome his leadership and diverse retail background, which will only aid the organization's mission of encouraging and promoting mutual cooperation, collaboration and education" said Curt Crum, CLEAR President and CID Special Services Manager, Boise Police Department. Crum also added, "CLEAR strives to elevate both the Law Enforcement and Loss Prevention investigative professional as leaders in addressing crimes against businesses within the retail industry and improving the safety of our communities. By expanding our Board with industry leaders like OX, we will gain more diverse thought in achieving our goals."

"Ox has shown his commitment to improving the loss prevention/asset protection industries through his partnership and support, the Coalition's Board is comprised of many great leaders in both the public and private sectors and we welcome Ox as a thought leader as we continue to grow CLEAR as a leading public-private partnership organization," said Ben Dugan, CLEAR Vice President.

About CLEAR

The Coalition of Law Enforcement and Retail (CLEAR) is a non-profit 501(c)(3), non-partisan national association founded in November 2008 by a group of Law Enforcement and Retail Loss Prevention professionals that saw the need for the formation of a partnership. The Coalition provides a forum for public and private sector members, with experience in a wide variety of public safety initiatives, to aid and support the establishment of collaborative efforts that are focused on improving the safety of our communities and advancing the profession of its membership.

CLEAR's Board of Directors recognizes that there are many challenges to establishing collaborative efforts that support the safety of our communities. CLEAR, through public-private partnership arrangements, provides diverse training and education programs, offering timely, relevant information and insights to our Members and training participants as well as providing vital core resources for creating and furthering partnerships nationwide. Training and education events are focused on delivering the most productive and cost-effective training and development opportunities, providing unmatched content that contributes to both the success of our members and the continued success of the organization's for which they represent.

CLEAR's mission is to build and support public-private sector partnerships focused on improving the safety of our communities. We accomplish this mission through supporting collaborative training and education events, open communication and networking opportunities. By working and training together, our Members create a tenor in which all understand they are stakeholders, who are aware and vested in the security and protection of our communities.
