

We are your PARTNERS in crime fighting during this pandemic- and every day. We appreciate your flexibility adapting to our new meeting format and we will continue to update you with new training and networking opportunities as they become available. -SDORCA Board

Behind the Mask:

Train our teams to still be a good witness with COVID challenges by paying attention to repeated elements with the suspects.

- Shoes
- Jewelry, Watches, Glasses
- Brands/ Sports/ Colors
- Mask Type/Design
- Eye and Ear features

Pay attention to a man's actions, not his words. His behavior is sending you all the clues you need.

Tips for the “New Normal” from SDCDA’s Office:

- With current COVID climate in regard to the SD Court system, you may be asked to provide testimony under CA Prop 115, also known as the “Crime Victim’s Justice Reform Act”
 - Allows the officer to testify in place of the victim at the preliminary hearing, testifying to statements by victims/ witnesses during the investigation
 - Allows DA’s to overcome hearsay objections, which is usually thrown out of court
- For this reason, it is SO important that the officer has all necessary information to accurately testify on the victim’s behalf. LP should continue to write good reports and include the following details in reports so that LE can establish the perception of the suspect and the victims with details such as:
 - Describe any potential force, fear, threat, intimidation to victim(s), which makes the crime a felony under PC211 (Estes) if applicable
 - Describe the type of store and guest that shop in that store for any increased threat level (i.e. children, elderly, etc.)
- See more information on San Diego Court reopening details at www.sdcourt.ca.gov

We have been made aware of the Netsential data breach that effected their organization. It is our understanding that law enforcement is investigating. As information about this becomes available, we will provide it to you.

SDORCA has always required work contact information to be used when registering for the site and for events. This has always been the case and will continue to be the protocol. One reason was for verification, but also to keep your personal data separate and secure. We feel this step has benefited us in any potential data breach, as it means your personal data would not be affected.

Please feel confident in posting and using the website.
